

Volunteer Role Profile

Role title	NOAH Ambassador
Purpose of the role	To promote NOAH and raise awareness of the work the charity does. To engage potential partners, supporters or donors, and to represent the charity to the media, forums and events.
What you will be doing	An Ambassador may undertake one or more of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Speak about NOAH and it's work within their network and at events and forums • Use their influence and networks to recruit donors • Generate support for NOAH with stakeholders, and sow seeds for new collaborations and partnerships • Represent NOAH to the media, broadcast, written and social • Lead campaigns to raise awareness of issues • Lead campaigns to raise funds
Skills, experience and qualities needed	You will be a confident communicator and public speaker. Any of the following would be great to have: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Thorough knowledge of NOAH services • Knowledge of issues surrounding homelessness and poverty alleviation • Understanding of local authority services • Understanding of regulatory issues • Understanding of fundraising and marketing
When and where	Volunteers are flexible with time, however it would be desirable for Ambassadors to commit to a minimum of five hours per month. Dates and times will vary according to the different event and meeting schedules.
Support offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You will be assigned a named staff member as a direct contact for any questions or queries you may have • Thorough training will be offered, template guides will be produced and a full briefing will be given before each event • All travel and incidental expenses will be covered (as agreed in advance)
What you could get out of it	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Experience of working with a charity • Meeting new people in a very diverse range of activities • Additional skills experience • Public recognition
Other relevant information
What to do if you're interested	Fill out a volunteer application form on our website or email volunteers@noahenterprise.org and we will send you a form

Roles may be flexible – please contact us if you have any questions